In dynamic or high-risk situations, having immediate access to communication is essential. Audiebant Wearables work seamlessly with our safety apps to provide staff with a discreet and reliable way to raise alerts, trigger announcements or request assistance – wherever they are.

Working effortlessly with our apps, these devices enable quicker responses and stronger protection for staff.

What is an Audiebant Wearable?

Audiebant Wearables are compact, coin-sized devices designed to provide users with simple, discreet, and immediate access to support.

By double or triple pressing the button, users can instantly trigger an alert or send a request for assistance - functions that adapt depending on which Audiebant app is in use.

This ensures help is always within reach, without the need to unlock or handle a phone.

Compact and Versatile

Small, coin-sized device that's easy to wear on a wrist strap, garment fastener, or belt clip
